Muslim Philanthropic Values

With over 3,500,000 million American Muslims (Pew Research Group), according to ISPU.org, faith is a strong indicator of charitable giving along with a sense of those with having more should give to those with less.

AMCF developed an exercise to pair with Barakah Culture Cards from the Muslim Productive Company. The cards help family & friends discover what motivates your charitable giving. Explore mindsets, values, & rituals that will help you identify more causes you would love to support.

To print 1,000 deck of cards will cost $5,000.

We'd love to include your logo on the accompanying letter.
